Johnson Sent Into Breach in Tenth With the Score Standing Three All.

JOE JUDGE AGAIN PLAYS MOST IMPORTANT PART

Starts Both Rallies With Hits. Williams Makes Good With Bat in Pinches.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

A struggle which lasted until late into the afternoon resulted in a fourteen inning tie in the last game of the series with Chicago yesterday. Each tean scored three runs during the long session, the Sox in the seventh, when they scored their trio, thanks to the help o two errors by Henry and Harper, while the Griffmen got two in their half of the seventh and tied it up in the ninth. From seventh and tied it up in the ninth. From that on neither side scored, though the Griffmen had several chances to do so. Each team used three pitchers, Wolfgang and Johnson finishing the game. The former in the tenth relieved kussell, who had succeeded Benz in the seventh, when the locals made a belated rally, while Johnson came to Boehling's relief in the tenth inning.

Boehling pitched one ball to him, which he fouled, when Johnson was brought into the game. He fanned Ness and also J. Sox Score on Errors.

The first runs of the game came in the seventh inning. E. Collins led the seventh inning. E. Collins led off with a triple to right center. Fournier was walked and Jackson dropped a scratch to short left, which Shanks muffed after a long run, Collins being held on third. Felsh hit to Foster and Collins was nailed at the plate. In an effort to make a double play, Henry threw to first, but Felsh, running on the grass and out of line, was hit in the pack, the ball bouncing toward the grandstand and Fournier scoring. The umpires railed Felsh had not run out of line. Jackson pulled up at third, and Felsh want to second. Schalk hit an awkward tap to Harper, not run out of line. Jackson pulled up at third, and Felsh went to second. Schalk hit an awkward tap to Harper, who, after stopping the ball and turning around, threw it to the plate, but the ball struck Jackson, sliding into the plate, in the back, and before hienry cound recover the ball Felsh had also come home with the third run. Schalk, who had run to second on the error, stole third. McMullin was thrown out by McBride, who held Schalk on third, and then Harper fanned Benz for the second time.

Schalk on thrd, and then Harper fanned Benz for the second time.

The Griffmen had their troubles getting to Benz. They hit him hard enough, but he could not be hit at the right time, until the seventh, when the locals got a brace of runs. After Rondeau had flied out, Judge started the raily by singling, his second blow. Shanks popped to Weaver and then Henry singled, sending Judge to third. McBride was hit by a pitched ball, ming the bases. This situation called for a pinch hitter, williams was sent to bat for Harper, and he came through with a single to right, sending two runs over the plate. McBride tried to score on the plate. McBride tried to score on the play, for Murphy played the ball poorly, trying to trap it. Murphy threw to the plate and Schalk pegged to second trying to cut off Wirliams. McBride should have scored easily and won the game, but he hesitated and Weaver got the ball back to the plate in time to cut McBride off.

Billy Sullivan, former Chicago White Sox catcher and manager, watched Flaherty pitch this spring against a prominent prep school nine and immediately saw possibilities in the youngster. He was offered a contract and has been carried by Detroit since that time.

According to definite report, it is

Mines scored four times in the first ment to farm Flaherty out to one of the clubs in the Eastern League until the clubs in the Eastern League until the latter part of the season. Flaherty has never before had professional experience, and it is figured that he will benefit greatly by spending a couple of months in a minor league.

Mines scored four times in the first mining against Survey in the Home Club League and increased the margin throughout the contest. Mines won by otherwise, and it is figured that he will be being club. The work of Geibel behind the bat and at bat for Mines was exceptional, while Gerardi, Saffelle and Smith did good work for the losers.

General Office won from Auditors by 5 to 2 in the Terminal Railroad Y. M. C. A. League. All the runs were scored in two innings, General Office counting quite a reputation bere in the amateur circuits before entering Dean Academy. There is one feature relative to the "Johnson day" which you may not know, and that is after we had contributed to him a cupful of money—nearly $1,200—the price of admission was increased to such an extent that before we got a seat it cost us from $1 to $1.75. It cost 75 cents to enter the first gate, and from then on, until you were finally seated, it was 25 cents for every usher you confronted, row after row of the "orchestra circle" being reserved, and nobody to occupy them.
